

Mason & Oceana County Agricultural Trail Map

Agricultural Trail Intro & OnCell Calling Instructions

1) Dial the phone number listed on the trail sign OR scan the QR code with your smartphone

2) When prompted, key in the stop number, which is also listed on the trail sign

Stop 300 Fruits of Farming Sculpture

This bronze sculpture represents the hard-working families and agricultural history of farming in Mason County.

Stop 301 House of Flavors

HouseOfFlavors.com

Stop by this Ludington icon that produces over 24 million gallons of ice cream per year. Watch how its all made and grab a cone to go!

Stop 302 Ludington Petunia Parade

Each year community volunteers plant more than 30,000 locally grown red, white, and purple petunias along the Ludington Avenue and city streets.

Stop 303 Mason County Fairgrounds

MasonCountyFairgrounds.com

The fairgrounds are the epi-center of agriculture in Mason County and hosts several community events throughout the year.

Stop 304 Orchard Market

OrchardMarket.us

This roadside market is a great stop for u-pick produce, fresh bakery items, flowers and so much more. Bring gifts from the farm home with you!

Stop 305 Michigan Farm Cheese Dairy

AndrulisCheese.com

Andrulis Farm Cheese Dairy has been producing fresh baltic cheese since 1940. Come experience how farm cheese

Stop 306 Sanders Meats

SandersMeats.com

Started in 1925, this meat market is a must stop. They offer high quality, locally raised meats like hams, hot dogs, steaks, burgers, deli meat and more!

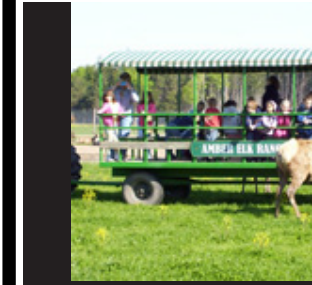

Stop 307 Western Michigan Old Engine Club

Hosts to many tractor pulls and shows, visitors can also see up-close hundreds of engines, tractors and equipment on display at the grounds.

Stop 308 Amber Elk Ranch

AmberElkRanch.com

View majestic bulls, cows and adorable calves amidst a fun, family oriented atmosphere. Take a wagon ride to get up-close and personal with

Stop 309 Historic White Pine Village

HistoricWhitePineVillage.org

The farmstead features a farmhouse, Jorissen Barn and an extensive collection of farm machinery, equipment and transportation artifacts.

Stop 310 Christofferson Farms

231.845.5831

Enjoy the orchard experience! Delicious variety of cherries, peaches, and other tree-ripened fruits are available for "u-pick" and to pur-

Stop 311 Kistercrest Farm

231.843.3032

This fifth generation family farm grows sweet and tart Cherries, Apples and produce. Pure Maple Syrup available at a roadside stand.

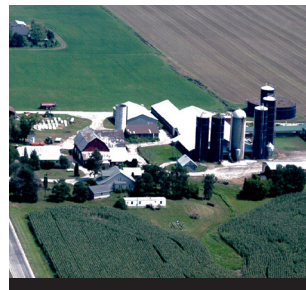

Stop 312 The Jam Farm

Facebook.com/Lois.JamLady

Stop by and visit the Jam Lady! You can taste and buy over 30 varieties of jams made using fresh fruit grown on their farm and heirloom

Stop 313 New Horizon Farm

This 880 acre dairy farm is home to 300 cows and 250 heifers. Watch a big 106 horse power machine cut hay and also see how cows are milked.

Stop 314 Fox Barn Market & Winery

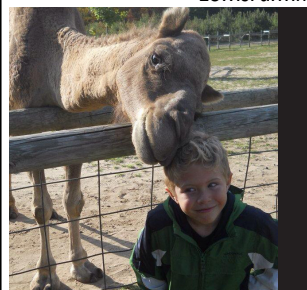

FoxBarnWinery.com

The Fox Barn offers many locally produced food items, fresh produce, wine tasting, wine-themed gifts and other trinkets.

Stop 315 Lewis Farm Market & Petting Farm

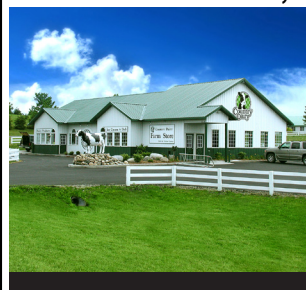

LewisFarmMarket.com

Families will enjoy fresh fruits, seasonal attractions like their corn maze and the petting farm on this fourth generation, family fruit farm.

Stop 316 Country Dairy

CountryDairy.com

Country Dairy, Inc. is a family owned farm that processes and bottles milk. Come enjoy ice cream, cheese and tours of the operations.

Gene's Ventures

GenesVentures.com 231.690.1775

Climb aboard this comfortable 14 passenger bus for a guided tour of the Agricultural Trail and many more throughout Mason County!

Agricultural Events in Mason County

Downtown Ludington Farmer's Market
Friday's from 3-8pm (May 8 - Sept. 25)
Western Michigan Fair Aug. 11-15, 2015
Scottville Harvest Festival - September 2015

BROUGHT TO YOU BY:

PureLudington.com

AND THE LUDINGTON/MASON COUNTY
CULTURAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT TASK FORCE